1 About this document

1.1 Purpose

This policy exists to set out the responsibilities of Fundamentals and those who work for and with us regarding the community and environment in which we exist; to our past, present and potential future employees; and to other stakeholders.

It also provides an indication to stakeholders of what they can expect of Fundamentals when working in or around us, and when we operate in a community and environment.

1.2 Definitions

We, us, our	refers to Fundamentals ;
Stakeholder	refers to anyone who we meet or work with (including actual and potential clients, customers, business contacts, and government and public bodies, including their advisors, representatives and officials, politicians, and public parties) and anyone in the locality of where we work or who may be impacted by our operations;
Employees	includes directors, employees, trainees, contract staff, seconded staff, agency staff, home workers, casual workers, volunteers, interns, agents and sponsors;
You, your	refers to anyone to whom the policy applies.

2 Policy statement

Fundamentals was established in 1994 to solve a voltage control problem in electrical grids. Since then, the primary focus of our work is: using our voltage control knowhow to improve the health and performance of the electrical grid. We are intent on solving problems to enable the energy transition. Factors in our success include building on deep and influential relationships with customers; using our intellect, expertise and niche; and motivated, appreciated, rewarded and satisfied colleagues.

We have a set of core values which are distinctive to Fundamentals and are the foundations of the way we work and behave. These are: delivering WOW!, embrace the adventure, have fun and be happy, a can-do attitude, do what you say, wear the shirt and sharing knowledge and experience. Our communities and stakeholders should see these values within our corporate responsibility policy.

We also have some unspoken minimum expected behaviours of our employees and business partners including respect, integrity and being nice. Our communities and stakeholders have a right to expect the way we operate to be consistent with these.

The clarity of Fundamentals' purpose leads us to the following objectives for our corporate responsibility policy:

- We want people to live and work in happy, caring communities and a pleasant environment, with everyone treating each other with respect;
- We want people, from all backgrounds and walks of life, to fulfil their potential to the best of their ability;
- We want to use our skills to help others in our communities – where people have need, we should help where we can;
- We want to use our skills to address societal issues and create sustainable communities and environments;
- We recognise the value of diversity and wish to support and encourage diverse populations; and;
- We want integrity, respect and fairness to all at the heart of all business activity.

3 Who is covered by the policy?

This policy applies to all employees of Fundamentals, no matter where they are located (within or outside the UK). We also wish to promote our policy objectives to our business stakeholders and for use within their organisations.

4 Policy in action

4.1 Employees and Colleagues

In pursuit of helping our employees to fulfil their potential we will

- run an apprenticeship scheme and use apprenticeships as the method of choice for building and developing our workforce; and
- provide opportunities for personal, academic and professional development for our employees.

In pursuit of a happy, caring workforce and a pleasant work environment we will

- seek to encourage and promote activities and behaviours by employees which are consistent with our values. Conversely, we will aim to identify and address behaviours which demonstrate negativity to our values.

In pursuit of happy, caring communities and a pleasant environment we will

- seek to encourage and promote external charitable, social or community activities by our employees, and will seek to support these where appropriate.

In pursuit of encouraging diversity and employees from many backgrounds, we will

- regularly review our working practices to eliminate practices which have unnecessary unbalanced impact on groups of employees with common characteristics; and
- support flexibility to assist employees in maintaining their employment and lifestyle throughout the different stages of their lives and careers

4.2 Recruitment

In pursuit of encouraging diversity and employees from many backgrounds, we will

- regularly review our recruitment approach and employment terms to adjust practices which have unbalanced impact on groups of employees with common characteristics; and
- develop recruitment practices to ensure we reach under-represented groups and support them to actively participate in recruitment and employment.

4.3 Environment and Sustainable Communities

In pursuit of sustainable environments, we have

- a comprehensive environmental policy supervised by an environmental committee that meets regularly and maintain ISO 14001:2015 certification.

In pursuit of sustainable communities and environments we will

- aim to support employees who wish to cycle to and from the office.

In pursuit of sustainable communities, we will

- engage with schools and groups local to our operations to provide a local source of employment, e.g. for school leavers and those returning to employment; and our charitable support targets local charities.

4.4 Business ethics

In pursuit of integrity, we are

- committed to the highest ethical and legal standards in the conduct of our business.

*Our employees' actions and conduct are key to maintaining these standards. This is formalised in the Anti Bribery, Corruption and Tax Evasion policy¹ that applies to all employees of Fundamentals and our business partners.*

4.5 Modern Slavery

In pursuit of integrity, respect and fairness to all

- we are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in any part of our business and
- we will extend this with "one-up" due diligence on the next link in the supply chain.

*(This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Fundamentals' slavery and human trafficking statement for the current financial year.)*

4.6 Charitable activities

In pursuit of happy, caring communities, a happy, caring workforce and using our skills to address societal issues, we will

¹ BMSP-50 Anti Bribery, Corruption and Tax Evasion policy

- organise, promote and carry out charitable activities in a fun manner to provide support to appropriate charities, with emphasis on those benefiting the communities in which we operate; and
- encourage charitable activities with a sense of personal achievement and adventure, or that require our particular skills for great effect, to achieve good buy in from employees and a sense of achievement, fun and personal benefit in addition to charitable support.
